Christianity is Christ

If you could ask God one question, and you knew it would be answered, what would it be?

READ MARK 1:1

• What does Mark say Christianity is all about in the first sentence of his book?

D How is that different from some of the pictures we've drawn?

- Christianity is not about rules or ceremonies. It's all about Jesus Christ.
- If we're here by chance, we have no real significance or value. But God created us – so we matter enormously.
- We all face death sooner or later. Since we all have to die, what's the point of living?
- The Bible says we don't really start living until we know the one who made us, and live as he made us to live.
- But how can we get to know God? We need him to reveal himself to us. Mark says he's done that for us by sending Jesus Christ. If we want to know what God is like, we must look at Jesus.
- That's why "the gospel about Jesus Christ" is good news.

What do most people think about God and Christianity? Why do you think that is? What about Jesus? Do people think he matters? What do you think?

If you asked a group of people in the street: "What's the point of life?", what kind of answers would you get?
